For two decades now, PLOINK has promoted techno nights around Norway, presenting local talent as well as some of the biggest acts from around the world.

Last year we finally set up our label branch and with this we now count 9 releases.

KSMISK is norwegian pioneers TRULZ & ROBIN's otherworldly alias.

Between them they have released music for over 15years on labels such as Bpitch, Eskimo, Jackoff, Electronic Be, Dialect, Suicide, Cymasonic, Full Pupp and Rett & Fletta.

We are proud to present their first release for PLOINK.

We asked them to describe the two tracks - this is what they sent us:

Strikkemor - Grandmother is out of bed with here knitting kit. Sneering and swinging here stick around. She is angry!!!!!!

Ginnungagap - Before time, there was nothing. An endless void of Darkness. Until ...
