Norwegian techno institution Ploink launches annual series entitled 'Affinity' with its debut release featuring names like Skatebård, HndS, Roeglin, Fraunhofer and Priq.

Based in Bergen, Ploink has been flying the flag for Norwegian techno for well over two decades, organising some of the country's best events and festivals. Co-founded by Thomas Urv and Miss Mostly, the label was born five years ago and has since released music from an array of home-grown talent including Mental Overdrive, Prins Thomas, +plattform, Joaquin Ruiz, Christian Tilt, and more.

Launching the label's new 'Affinity' series, BerlinaFürTechno's Roeglin is first with 'Norm' which opens with glitched stabs, vocals and a tight drum pattern. Picking up the pace, Fraunhofer - formerly known as Dortmund - returns to the label bringing a shuffling rhythm, crunchy cymbals and spacy synths in 'Saturn'.

Bergen dance music royalty Skatebård remixes 'Wake Up' by London-based Scandinavian duo HndS, maintaining the energy with thumping bass and bouncing chords. Tying it all together, Norwegian producer and drummer Priq's 'Area' sweeps in with decayed keys, pulsing percussion and a gripping atmosphere.

'Affinity 1' drops on Ploink on 27th September 2019.
